Shops have worst year on record

SHOPS suffered their worst annual sales performance on record in 2020 – driven by slump in demand for fashion and homeware products.

While food sales growth rose 5.4% on 2019, non-food fell about 5%, the British Retail Consortium (BRC) said.

It meant an overall fall of 0.3% in a year dominated by COVID-19 – the worst annual change since the BRC began collating the figures in 1995.

Christmas offered little cheer, with much of the High Street still closed.

"Physical non-food stores, including all of non-essential retail, saw sales drop by a quarter compared with 2019," said BRC chief executive Helen Dickinson.

Food sales rose as shoppers flocked to supermarkets and online grocers to get stocked up during the pandemic.

Post delayed by virus in 28 areas

ROYAL Mail has published a list of areas where there have been delivery delays due to its workforce being affected by the pandemic.

The postal service said some areas will see a reduced service due to workers being off sick or self-isolating.

It listed 28 areas where post might be late – 27 in England and one in Northern Ireland.

Many of the affected areas are in or near London. Others include Chelmsford in Essex, Leeds in West Yorkshire, Margate in Kent, and Widnes in Cheshire.

BIG CAT SPOTTED IN CHESHIRE

A STUNNED McDonald's delivery man photographed a mystery puma-like "big cat" on the prowl after dropping off a burger.

Richard Evans, 24, was riding his bike when he spotted the "enormous" creature stalking its way through a meadow.

Shocked Richard has now reported the sighting to a "puma watch" group after hearing of other sightings in the area.

He provided a picture of the mystery creature which appears to show a large black cat.

Richard said: "I was out on my bike coming back into town after delivering someone's McDonald's when I spotted an enormous cat across the river on the meadows.

"I pulled over to take a picture and tried to shout to a dog walker nearby, but they couldn't hear me.

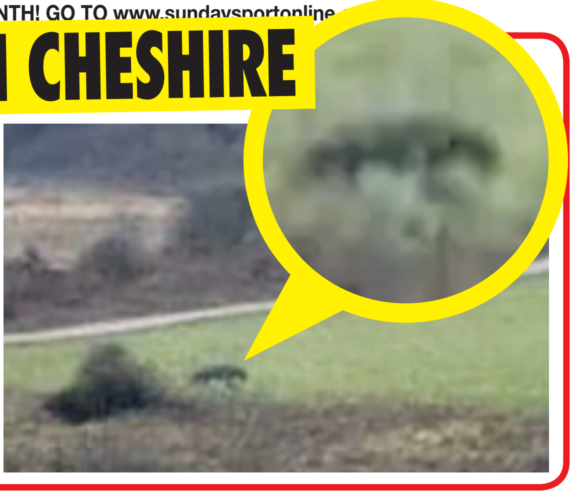
"It was prowling along the edge of the long grass, then disappeared into the undergrowth.

"It was absolutely massive, like nothing I've ever seen."

Richard spotted the animal in Chester – around 10 miles from other reports of an animal dubbed the "Puma of Pontybodkin".

Tony Jones, founder of Puma Watch North Wales, said: "We've learnt that in September 2011 someone called 999 to report a tiger in the exact same location.

"They were walking along the River Dee in Chester when they said a tiger looked at them before disappearing off into the bushes."



COVID: WHO IS IT KILLING?

New NHS figures reveal virus victim stats

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

PEOPLE without health problems and the under-60s are faring better in the latest wave of COVID-19 than they did in the first.

But figures from NHS England show that women and white people make up a greater proportion of hospital coronavirus deaths than they did in the spring.

People who had no known health problems when they were infected made up five per cent of 25,080 deaths in the first wave and 3% of 12,125 deaths in the third.

Those under 60 made up 8.7% of deaths in the spring – this winter they account for 5.9% of deaths.

Some doctors have said they feel as if they are seeing more young people on coronavirus wards than they did in April, which may be because inpatient numbers are higher across the board.

There were 32,294 people in hospital with COVID-19 in the UK on Monday – up a fifth on the week before and 10,610 above the peak in April.

Experts said it was possible people with pre-existing health conditions were not benefiting as much from new treatments as those without.

They said because people from low income groups were more likely to have health problems, the increased representation of people with chronic conditions in COVID-19 death counts might reflect a lower ability to self-isolate or avoid contact with the virus.

Simon Clarke, associate professor in cellular microbiology at the University of Reading, said that although a change from 5% of deaths to 3% of deaths was small, "if you think about the number of patients that it is, it's not necessarily so small".

Survival

He suspected that "people with pre-existing conditions probably don't respond as well as people without" to the new therapies that have been developed since the first wave.

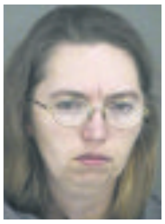
The survival chances of hospital patients are thought to be higher now than at the start of the pandemic, because of the discovery of treatments like dexamethasone, a steroid.

Trial results showed it prevented one death in eight in ventilated patients, and one in 25 in patients on oxygen.

Michael Head, a senior research fellow in global health at the University of Southampton, said "improved knowledge and better clinical practice" would also be a factor.

In this wave, 57% of deaths are among men, compared with 61% in the first wave.

Information released by NHS England showed that the youngest person with no known underlying conditions whose death from COVID-19 was reported in the past 72 hours was aged 26.



Execution of death row killer halted

A WOMAN on death row for strangling an expectant mum and cutting her baby from her body has been given a last-minute stay of execution.

Lisa Montgomery was due to die by lethal injection on Tuesday at Terre Haute federal prison in Indiana.

Judge James Patrick Hanlon halted it on the basis of evidence that Montgomery, 52, was unable to understand the government's rationale for her execution.

Montgomery (above) would have become the first woman to be federally executed in America for 70 years.

She drove 170 miles from her home in Kansas to meet heavily pregnant dog breeder Bobbie Jo Stinnett, 23, in Skidmore, Missouri, in December 2004 under the guise of picking up a puppy.

But instead she strangled Ms Stinnett with a rope and used a knife to perform a makeshift caesarean before fleeing with the premature baby girl.

Montgomery's lawyers have argued she had been sexually abused and was mentally ill at the time of the crime.

Use 20-20-20 to protect sight

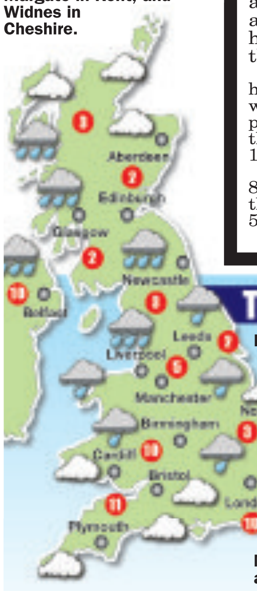
AN eye health charity is recommending people learn the "20-20-20" rule to protect their sight, as lockdown has increased people's time using screens.

Fight for Sight advises looking at something 20 feet away for 20 seconds, every 20 minutes you look at a screen.

Out of 2,000 people surveyed, half used screens more since COVID-19 struck and 38% of those believed their eyesight had got worse.

One in five were less likely to get an eye test now than before the pandemic, for fear of catching or spreading the virus.

Respondents reported difficulty reading, as well as headaches, migraines and poorer night vision.



TODAY'S WEATHER

IT will be cold with rain, sleet and snow across northern UK, lasting most of the day in western areas. Further south, a rain band moves east, followed by milder but rather cloudy weather.

Temperatures of 10C in London, 10C in Cardiff, 5C in Manchester, 10C in Belfast and 2C in Edinburgh.

Thursday sees rain and hill snow pushing east, milder in the west.

Temperatures of 9C in London, 10C in Cardiff, 5C in Manchester, 9C in Belfast and 3C in Edinburgh.

OUTLOOK: Unsettled.

BORIS BIKE RIDE GETS OKAY

DOWNING Street has defended Boris Johnson for riding his bicycle seven miles from home, saying he DID comply with COVID rules.

Labour accused the prime minister of having double standards after it was reported he had been spotted in the saddle at east London's Olympic Park.

Government guidance says daily outdoor exercise is allowed, but people should not travel outside their local area.

The PM's spokesman said any suggestion he had broken the rules was "wrong".

But there was no confirmation as to whether Mr Johnson had been driven to the Olympic Park from Downing Street or had cycled there.

Metropolitan Police Commissioner Dame Cressida Dick told BBC Radio 4's Today programme the trip had not been "against the law – that's for sure".

People should go for exercise "from your front door and come back to your front door", she said.

She added: "That's my view of local."

The prime minister (left) had been seen in the Olympic Park, with his security detail, on Sunday.

SHE is no stranger to flashing the flesh online.

But when Kylie Jenner posted her most recent snaps to Instagram, vile sex trolls on the hate-filled Daily Mail website BOMBARDED the beauty with sticky DEPRAVITY!

Kylie fired up her Insta Stories to post a clip of selfie footage, in which she flaunted her assets.

The 23-year-old cosmetics tycoon put her ample cleavage on display by going topless except for a bra from her sister Kim Kardashian's line SKIMS.

Smelly

But a vile Daily Mail reader, cowering behind the pseudonym Mr Francisco, slavered: "One night with me and she wouldn't be able to walk for six months."

Another troll, who we hesitate to give the oxygen of publicity, even made the revolting and baseless claim that Kylie has a "smelly fanny".

But it was not all slander.

Fan Genie99, from Southampton, spoke for many when he commented: "Incredibly hot massive boobs."

A pal said: "When Kylie posts these pictures, she doesn't expect comments about being shagged bandy or about vaginal freshness."

Kylie also uploaded a snap of her in the bath, pouring Kylie Skin product into the water for bubbles to keep her in line with Instagram's Community Guidelines.

REBEKAH'S SCARFACE SCARE

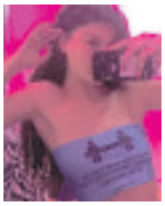
REBEKAH Vardy has revealed the horror moment she accidentally SLICED OPEN her professional partner's face during rehearsals for Dancing On Ice.

The model (right), who is married to Leicester City striker Jamie Vardy, is teamed with pro skater Andy Buchanan for the ITV show.

Rebekah, 38, said: "I do apologise. No, it was awful – I think I've just come to terms with scarring his face.

"We were practising a trick and it went very wrong and the back of my heel and my blade sliced his face open.

"It was quite scary. But it brings back the realisation that what we're doing is really bloody dangerous – but he's fine."



Depop seller's top made from rail seat cover

A FASHION student has been warned not to sell "prohibited" items online after she posted an advert for a sexy crop top homemade from a train seat cover.

Mhari Thurston-Tyler (above) made the bandeau out of a Chiltern Railways seat cover designed to promote social distancing.

The 20-year-old sold the top for £15 but later refunded her customer and took the advert down.

Online store Depop said the item "clearly violates our terms of service".

The app for buying and selling second-hand clothes said the sale of stolen goods was banned – but Ms Thurston-Tyler denied stealing.

The student at Central Saint Martins, London, said she found two of the blue seat covers "balled up on the floor" outside Marylebone train station in London.

Gervais: I want to be torn apart by zoo lions!

RICKY Gervais's dying wish to be torn apart by LIONS has been rejected by London Zoo.

The writer, actor and comedian revealed the bizarre desire on a US chat show – giving his reason as wanting to give something back to nature.

"I thought it would be good to just be fed to the lions at London Zoo," said The Office creator (above).

"That would be useful, wouldn't it, because we never give anything back.

"We take everything from this world."

But the After Life star's plans have been stopped in their tracks, with the zoo suggesting he wouldn't provide good quality meat.

Chief Operating Officer Kathryn England said: "I suspect Ricky may be a bit gristly for our lions.

"But we are struggling financially because of lockdown, so if anyone wants to 'give something back' we welcome donations that will help us keep our lions fed on a more suitable diet."

Give junkie lags free cannabis, says crime chief

PRISONS should trial free cannabis schemes for drug-dependent inmates, according to a police and crime commissioner.

North Wales commissioner Arfon Jones said that if justice authorities were serious about reducing harm and violence in prisons, they "should be addressing the causes".

He pinpointed substances such as the cheap synthetic cannabinoid "spice" that is rife and can be deadly.

"If they're on opioids, why can't they be prescribed cannabis?" said Mr Jones, 66, himself a former police officer.

"At the end of the day, opioids are a damn sight more dangerous than cannabis.

"It would be an improvement on the illegal spice smuggled in by corrupt prison officers too."

TERMINATOR STAR SPEAKS FOR A NATION AND THE WORLD

THE SPEECH OF THE CENTURY

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

TERMINATOR* star Arnold Schwarzenegger has been compared to former British PM and war leader Winston Churchill after streaming a rousing speech that RIPPED into disgraced US President Donald Trump.

In a hugely powerful seven-and-a-half minute vid, the Austrian-born action movie hero, 73, compared last week's Trump mob storm on Washington DC's Capitol Hill complex – the US equivalent of our Houses of Parliament – to 1938's infamous Kristallnacht.

Back then – in Germany and Austria – Nazis vandalised Jewish homes, schools and businesses during the "Night of Broken Glass".

Arnie's speech has already been shared by over TEN MILLION people appalled by last week's seismic events.

Despite being a Republican – the US bedfellows of the UK Conservative party – Arnie, a successful two-term governor of California, has long been a critic of party leader Trump.

He spoke passionately about baying Trump supporters, urged on by the president, storming the Capitol buildings, with four people – including a cop – dying in the melee.

Commentators compared his speech with Churchill's famous "fight them on the beaches" WW2 radio broadcast – and also with the oratory of assassinated former US president John F Kennedy.

One said: "It's the speech of the century."

Arnie's attack on Trump sees him join Churchill and JFK in the annals of history

HERE'S WHAT ARNIE HAD TO SAY...

He will go down in history as the worst president ever.

MISLED BY LIES: Rioting followers of Trump

AS an immigrant to this country, I would like to say a few words to my fellow Americans and to our friends around the world about the events of recent days.

Now, I grew up in Austria. I am very aware of Kristallnacht, or the Night of Broken Glass. It was a night of rampage against the Jews carried out in 1938 by the Nazi equivalent of the Proud Boys.

Wednesday was the Day of Broken Glass right here in the United States. The broken glass was in the windows of the United States Capitol.

But the mob did not just shatter the windows of the Capitol. They shattered the ideas we took for granted.

They did not just break down the doors of the building that housed the American democracy. They trampled the very principles on which our country was founded.

Now, I grew up in the ruins of a country that suffered the loss of its democracy. I was born in 1947, two years after the Second World War.

Growing up, I was surrounded by broken men drinking away their guilt over their participation in the most evil regime in history.

Not all of them were rabid anti-Semites or Nazis. Many just went along step-by-step down the road. They were the people next door.

Now, I've never shared this so publicly because it is a painful memory. But my father would come home drunk once or twice a week and he would scream and hit us and scare my mother.

I did not hold him totally responsible because our neighbour was doing the same thing to his family, and so was the next neighbour over.

I heard it with my own ears and saw it with my own eyes. They were in physical pain from the shrapnel in their bodies and in emotional pain from what they saw or did.

It all started with lies and lies and lies, and intolerance.

So being from Europe, I've seen first-hand how things can spin out of control.

I know there is a fear in this country and all over the world that something like this could happen right here.

Now, I do not believe it is, but I do believe that we must be aware of the dire consequences of selfishness and cynicism.

President Trump sought to overturn the results of an election and of a fair election. He sought a coup by misleading people with lies.

My father and our neighbours were misled also with lies, and I know where such lies lead.

President Trump is a failed leader. He will go down in history as the worst president ever.

The good thing is that he soon will be as irrelevant as an old tweet.

But what are we to make of those elected officials who have enabled his lies and his treachery?

I will remind them of what Teddy Roosevelt said: "Patriotism means to stand by the country. It does not mean to stand by the president."

And John F Kennedy wrote a book called Profiles in Courage.

A number of members of my own party, because of their own spinelessness, would never see their names in such a book, I guarantee you.

They're complicit with those who carried the flag of self-righteous insurrection into the Capitol.

But it did not work. Our democracy held firm.

Within hours, the Senate and the House of Representatives were doing the people's business and certifying the election of President Elect Biden.

What a great display of democracy.

Now, I grew up Catholic. I went to church, went to Catholic school. I learned the bible and my catechism, and all of this.

And from those days, I remember a phrase that is relevant today – a servant's heart.

It means serving something larger than yourself.

See, what we need right now from our elected representatives is a public servant's heart.

We need public servants that serve something larger than their own power or their own party.

We need public servants who will serve higher ideals, the ideals on which this country was founded, the ideals that other countries look up to.

Now, over the past few days, friends from all over the world have been calling and calling and calling me, calling me distraught and worried about us as a nation.

One woman was in tears about America, wonderful tears of idealism about what America should be.

Those tears should remind us of what America means to the world.

Now, I've told everyone who has called that, as heartbreaking as all of this is, America will come back from these dark days and shine our lights once again.

You see this sword? This is the Conan sword. Now, here's the thing about swords – the more you temper a sword, the stronger it becomes.

The more you pound it with a hammer and then heat it in the fire and then thrust it into the cold water, and then pound it again and plunge it into the fire and into the water, the more often you do that, the stronger it becomes.

I'm not telling you all this because I want you to become an expert sword maker, but our democracy is like the steel of this sword.

The more it is tempered, the stronger it becomes.

Our democracy has been tempered by wars, injustices, and insurrections.

I believe, as shaken as we are by the events of recent days, we will come out stronger because we now understand what can be lost.

We need reforms, of course, so that this never ever happens again.

We need to hold accountable the people that brought us to this unforgivable point.

And we need to look past ourselves, our parties, and disagreements, and put our democracy first.

And we need to heal, together, from the trauma of what has just happened.

We need to heal, not as Republicans or as Democrats, but as Americans.

Now, to begin this process, no matter what your political affiliation is, I ask you to join me in saying to President Elect Biden: "President Elect Biden, we wish you great success as our president. If you succeed, our nation succeeds.

"We support you with all our hearts as you seek to bring us together.

"And to those who think they can overturn the United States Constitution, know this – you will never win.

"President Elect Biden, we stand with you today, tomorrow, and forever in defence of our democracy from those who would threaten it."

May God bless all of you and may God bless America.

Pensioner, 80, slashed pro boxer across face with nail

AN 80-year-old man left a professional boxer scarred for life after slashing him across the face with a NAIL.

Andrew Wilson became "agitated and aggressive" with the boxer, who was performing karaoke at Wagley's bar in Aberdeen, and left him with a 7cm gash to his cheek, the city's sheriff court heard.

Defence agent Ian Woodward-Nutt told the court his client had the nail in his pocket in connection with his work in demolition.

Fiscal depute Christy Ward said: "The complainer was taking part in karaoke in Wagley's.

"The accused became agitated and aggressive towards the complainer. It is unclear why.

"Wilson was persuaded to leave the premises by friends.

"Around the same time the complainer was outside smoking a cigarette.

"At one point there was a physical struggle between the accused and the complainer."

Wilson, of Aberdeen, has pleaded guilty to a charge of assault to severe injury and permanent disfigurement.

The pensioner will return to court next month for a proof of mitigation hearing.

Virus stops us swigging 1bn pints of beer!

MORE than one billion PINTS OF BEER were flushed down the drain in 2020 thanks to COVID-19, a study has found.

Taking into account all lockdowns across the UK since March, researchers found that vast quantities of beer, ale and lager – which has a shelf life of between 2-4 months – has been wasted at pubs, clubs and eateries.

Around 3.5million barrels of beer – each containing 288 pints – have gone to waste.

And with the average price of a pint around £4, that's £4bn worth of beer poured away.

Graham Connelly, 45, of St Albans, Herts, said: "I really would be crying into my beer, if I had any.

"It's a shocking waste really – they should have just put a barrel at the end of every street and let people help themselves."

HARRY Styles has got yet ANOTHER top flight bit of fanny on the end of his pecker.

The pop star is now thumbing his Johnson into pretty US actress Olivia Wilde.

The handsome pair made their debut as Hollywood's hottest new power couple as they arrived holding hands at his agent's wedding in California.

Affection

The Watermelon Sugar singer, 26, made what the young people call a "public display of affection" with the actress, 36, who he is working with as the lead male on the film she is directing, Don't Worry Darling.

And we know what Harry gets to see when he lifts Olivia's nightie as she peeled off several times in the 2013 flick Third Person.

And she also went starkers in the hit TV show Vinyl – apart from sporting a Seventies-style MINGE WIG.

But Olivia is certainly not the first slice of A1 blart that Harry's feasted on – or at least been linked to.

Policeman jailed for sex on duty

A "PREDATOR" police officer who boasted of giving "good customer service" has been jailed for having sex on duty.

Solihull-based PC Emerson Estridge abused his position to target vulnerable women for his sexual gratification, Birmingham Crown Court heard.

West Midlands Police officer and "family man" Estridge, 46, would send sexually explicit messages to his victims, offered to meet them and had sex with one while on duty.

He offered to massage another with baby oil after first suggesting they should book a hotel room.

The court heard the Leamington Spa cop quit after his crimes, which involved four women between September 2016 and November 2018, were exposed.

Abusing

Jennifer Josephs, prosecuting, said: "His victims were either witnesses or victims of crime with whom he sought contact with for his sexual gratification and who he tried to have sexual relations with."

Estridge's lawyer, Abigail Nixon, said: "He was a good police officer, honest and reliable and a family man. He had a good work ethic."

Passing sentence, Judge Dean Kershaw told Estridge: "You described giving good customer service but your behaviour was not good customer service, it was abusing your position.

"It was akin to a sexual predator in uniform. Your aim was not to make them feel safe, your aim was sexual. It stops people putting their trust in the police."

Estridge was jailed for 18 months after he admitting four charges of corrupt and improper exercise of police powers.

Man jailed after paedo hunt sting

A GLOUCESTER man has been jailed for 20 months after a paedophile hunting group carried out a sting and caught him trying to arrange a sex session with an underage girl.

Gloucester Crown Court heard that Simeone Kazao, 43, was targeted by the 'Secretly Tackling On-line Predators' group (STOP) who created fictitious 13-year-old girl Billy-Ann Jones to expose his perverted intentions.

Alistair Haggerty, prosecuting, said: "When he made contact, Kazao was told the girl was 13.

"The conversation quickly became sexual and he kept asking to meet up for sex.

"The 'girl' reminded Kazao that she was only 13 and had not had sex before. His response was to tell her not to worry as he would show her what to do."

COVID TEST? TRY GIVING A BLOWJOB!

GOLFER-turned-social media star Paige Spiranac says getting a COVID test is no worse than giving a deep-throat BLOWJOB!

On the most recent episode of the 27-year-old's podcast, "Playing a Round," the often half-naked influencer opened up with co-host Josh Temple about the oral COVID-19 test.

And she compared it to giving a man oral sex.

By GRACE HOOPER

"There's one that you can just do your mouth, and that one actually is most unpleasant for me," says Temple.

"Like, they count 20 seconds where they swirl it around in the back of your mouth."

Pussies

To which Spiranac responds: "Yeah, well, now you know how women feel all the time, so."

"Would you like to expand on that?" asks Temple, laughing.

That's when the blonde bombshell popped off her blow-by-blowjob account.

"I think it's pretty self-explanatory," she says, before going into a graphic comparison.

"Guys are such pussies. They have like something in their mouth and they're like, 'Oh no, oh, that's so uncomfortable'.

"Meanwhile, girls are having their like heads like thrusted down, guy's like, 'That feels amazing'."

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

SEXY Lana Parker isn't bothered whether she has a QUICKIE or goes hell for leather in a MARATHON BONK, just so long as she gets a good shag.

Lana, 25, from Reigate, Surrey, said: "Having sex all night can be fun and so satisfying, but sometimes you just need a quick release.

"I think it depends on the situation too. If you're in a place where you can only get away with a quick shag, a quickie can be terrific.

Bonking

"But if you've got all night together, I love to take my time and do it over and over again."

If thoughts of bonking the blonde bombshell weren't enough to make you hot under the collar, she also wants to film herself in the act.

The 32DD stunna added: "I think it would be really naughty and fun to film myself and a guy having sex.

"And then we could watch it back together to get us in the mood for doing it again!"

TEACHER SPANKED GIRL'S BUM WITH RULER IN ART CLASS

PERVERT: James Smith

By ROY DURRIDGE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Asked her to bend down for a pencil

A PERVERT art teacher dropped a pencil and forced a young female pupil to pick it up so he could smack her on the bottom with a ruler.

James Skelton Smith, 59, then tried to hand the ruler to the girl in a bid to get her to do the same thing to him.

Dundee Sheriff Court was told that Smith also deliberately brushed past the teenage girl so he could touch her in sex attacks over a two-year period.

Buttocks

Fiscal depute Michael Sweeney told the court: "She recalled her time in the class with the accused and stated that on occasion he would brush past her with his hand making contact with her body.

"The accused was standing near the door when he purposefully knocked a pencil from the worktop on to the floor. The accused requested that she picked it up.

"When she did so he struck her to the buttocks with a ruler. She said considerable force was used."

The part-time teacher of expressive arts at the school in the Dundee area, admitted sexually assaulting the girl on several occasions.

The court was told Smith, who has since lost his job, had been jailed last year for a series of similar offences spanning several years.

"He was convicted after trial at the end of last year. An eight-month sentence was imposed and he was placed on the sex offenders register for 10 years," the court heard.

Smith was previously described as "abhorrent" when he was jailed after being found guilty in 2019 of a series of indecent and sexual assaults against pupils, who claimed he would regularly drop his pencil in order to crawl under desks in class.

Smith was placed on the Sex Offenders Register for three years and put under social work supervision for the same period.

Boss Frank gets Blues on Twitter

CHELSEA boss Frank Lampard is the most trolled footie boss on Twitter.

Of all the tweets directed at 42-year-old Blues boss Frank, who scored 147 goals for Chelsea, a total of 42 per cent are negative.

Boffins using online search data software found that just 34 per cent of tweets mentioning him were positive, with 24 per cent 'neutral'.

Insults included the words useless, brainless, moronic, embarrassing, hopeless, pea-brained, idiotic and stupid, as well as swear words like crap.

Chris Wilder, the boss of struggling Sheffield United, has the fewest negative tweets.

'DEVASTATION' AT CARJACKING

THE family of a restaurant owner mown down by thieves who had stolen his car say they are "devastated beyond belief".

Mohammed Islam (below), 53, was making a food delivery on Friday evening when the robbery took place in Romiley, Stockport.

Mr Islam, also known as Nowab Miah, died in hospital on Sunday afternoon and a 14-year-old boy arrested on suspicion of robbery continues to be questioned. The stolen silver Mercedes was later found abandoned.

In a statement, Mr Islam's family said: "We cannot begin to describe what losing our father has done to us. The fact he was just in the wrong place at the wrong time and was taken from us so early leaves us devastated beyond belief.

"To our dad, family and the community was everything."

World's biggest naturist festival still goes ahead

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A NUDIST festival has been given the green light to go ahead in spite of coronavirus restrictions.

The Zipolite Nudist Festival has taken place in the coastal municipality of San Pedro Pochutla for six years on Mexico's only legal nude beach.

The event put on by the Mexican Nudists' Federation attracts as many as 8,000 people.

This year's festival is set to run from January 29 to February 1.

The promotional brochure warns visitors they need to have reservations in a local hotel and will be expected to observe sanitary guidelines, including wearing masks and using sanitiser.

It also urges people to avoid coming if they are experiencing sore throat, fever or fatigue – and is trying to avoid gatecrashers boosting numbers by urging those who don't already have plans in place not to go.

"If you don't yet have flight and hotel reservations, then we invite you to stay at home," says a message on the festival's Facebook account.

The festival has inspired negative comments online, with one commenter saying: "This will be chaos. We are already seeing the first cases of COVID-19 in Zipolite."

But organisers defended their decision, pointing out the town's general assembly voted to allow it on the understanding that it would not be a massive event.

Sickos robbed soldier skulls for cult shrine

TWO men are awaiting trial after stealing SKULLS from the graves of army veterans.

Brian Tolentino, 43, and 39-year-old Juan Lopez (above) were arrested after cops said they broke into four graves and stole body parts.

Detectives served a search warrant at Lopez's home where they found a shed with a religious shrine and seven skulls.

A police spokesman in Davenport, Florida, said: "For the first time that I'm aware of, what we found was a Palo Mayombe, a cult religion shrine.

"When asked about why a hero's grave, Lopez said because the spirit is much stronger in a hero than it is a normal person.

"When you have the skull of a hero, the spirit can protect you from evil.

"He considers the cemeteries as shopping centres. We didn't say that. He did.

"He complained that in the U.S. it's difficult to get human remains to practise his religion."

Woman goes to court over lotto million

A WOMAN who claims she lost her millionaire lottery "win" is going to court in a bid to get her hands on the cash.

She told a court that she misplaced the ticket she bought with cash from a newsagent on January 22, 2014.

The woman, who is 59 but has not been named, is still searching for the winning $2million ticket – about £1.14m – and proof that she purchased it at a newsagent in Cairns, Queensland.

She claims the winning numbers are of personal significance as they are a family anniversary and birth dates.

The case against Aussie lottery organisers The Lott will be heard at the Supreme Court in Queensland, Australia, on February 3.

One commentator observed: "She has more chance of winning another lottery than winning that case."

AS KIM KARDASHIAN & KANYE WEST CALL IT A DAY, WE ASK...

WHY DO POP STARS END UP WITH ALL THE BEST PUSSY?

MIDWEEK Sport 5-PAGE SPECIAL

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

JUST when we thought that 2021 would be better than 2020, we were hit by the news that Kim Kardashian and Kanye West are headed for divorce.

Crowds driven mad by grief over the tidings even stormed the U.S. Capitol Building to urge Yank lawmakers to solve the couple's woes.

Proof

Kim, 40, has reportedly been debating the move for months and rapper Kanye, 43, considers separation "inevitable", it's said.

The divorce would mark the end of one of the most glittering unions ever in showbiz and one which once again proved an eternal celebrity truth – musicians always get the best pussy!

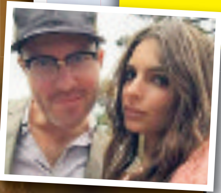
Want more proof?

Take a look at this lot of lucky bastards...

PAMELA ANDERSON & TOMMY LEE

ANYONE who's seen former Playboy babe Pam's sex tape – the original and still the best – will know that her relationship with Mötley Crüe rocker Tommy was hot stuff.

They were married for three years in the late 90s before parting ways. They later reunited but then split again.



EMILY RATAJKOWSKI & JEFF MAGID

MUSIC producer Jeff Magid was considered one of the luckiest men in the world, after winning the heart of sexy 26-year-old model, Emily Ratajkowski.

However, it's all gone south since, with the couple splitting and Emily going on to marry film producer Sebastian Bear-McClard a few months later.

JENNA JAMESON & MARILYN MANSON

PORN star Jenna wrote of shock rocker Manson in her autobiography: "He asked me to get on top, so I lowered myself onto him.

"We had slow, searing sex, but every time I came close to orgasm, he'd pull me off to keep from coming himself.

"Finally I couldn't take it anymore. When he tried to push me off the tenth time, I slammed my body down against his and rubbed my clit back and forth along his pelvic bone until we both came together.

"I collapsed onto him and then, when I got my breath back, got out of bed and began dressing to leave."

KATIE PRICE & PETER ANDRE

KATIE and Peter went on to marry and have two kids after meeting on I'm A Celebrity... Get Me Out Of Here! in 2004.

But the pair parted, remarried others and rarely speak about one another publicly.

In the days that followed their split in May 2009, it was claimed they'd had a huge bust-up after she was caught on a secret night out with her hunky riding instructor Andrew Gould.

YASMIN LE BON & SIMON LE BON

DURAN Duran star Simon Le Bon, 58, has been married to supermodel Yasmin, 52, since 1985.

Which must be some kind of showbiz record.

They share three children together, Amber, 28 – also a model – Saffron, 26, and Talullah, 23.

NAOMI CAMPBELL & ADAM CLAYTON

U2 bass player Adam Clayton must have the patience of a saint as he was, in 1994, engaged to supermodel Naomi Campbell.

They met when Adam came down to a hotel pool in Verona, Italy, where Naomi was sunbathing in the nude!

MEL SYKES & OLLY MURS

OLLY and Mel enjoyed a low-key liaison in 2017.

When pressed about whether he had a relationship with Mel while a guest on Loose Women, Olly admitted: "There might have been something."

Guest panellist Kelly Brook had questioned him about the matter, even asking where he took Mel for dinner.

CHRISSY TEIGEN & JOHN LEGEND

CHRISSY married R&B star John Legend in September 2013, in Como, Italy.

He proposed to the Sports Illustrated model in 2011, after four years of dating, having first met on the set of his 2007 music video for Stereo.

SHANNON TWEED & GENE SIMMONS

SOFT porn star Shannon married Gene Simmons, bassist and co-lead singer of the band Kiss, in 2011.

They have two children, Nicholas Adam and Sophie Alexandra.

The couple appeared together in Gene Simmons' Family Jewels, a TV reality show that portrayed the life of the family from 2006 to 2012.

HELENA CHRISTENSEN & MICHAEL HUTCHENCE

HELENA was dumped by the INXS singer for bonkers telly host Paula Yates in 1995.

She insists they had split before he took up with Yates.

It's academic now, as Mike hanged himself while having a strangle-wank in 1997.

HEATHER MILLS & SIR PAUL McCARTNEY

WHEN "Thumbs-Up" Macca announced he was marrying one-legged former sex book model Heather Mills, everyone said: "Paul, have a word with yourself, you Cuprinol-haired twat! This will end in disaster."

"No, no," said Paul. "It'll be great".

Paul was wrong, and they divorced in 2008.

AMBER ROSE & WIZ KHALIFA

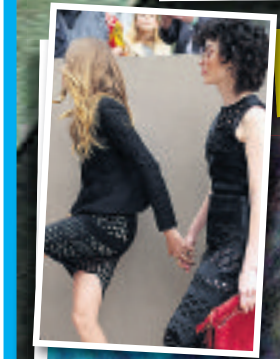
AMBER began dating rapper Wiz in early 2011 and they got married two years later when their son was born.

They divided their time between homes in LA and Canonsburg, Pennsylvania.

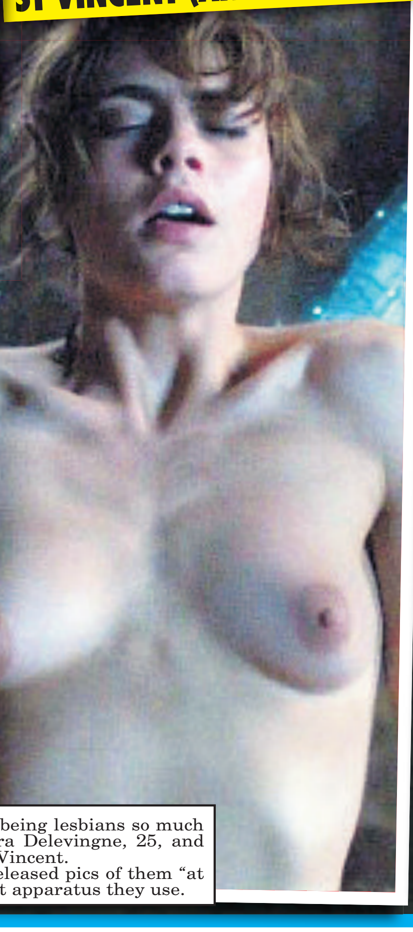
Amber filed for divorce from Wiz just a year after they wed, citing irreconcilable differences.

KATHY LLOYD & ERIC CLAPTON

PAGE 3 star Kathy and guitar god Eric Clapton were frequently spotted together out on the town back in the late Eighties and early Nineties.



CARA DELEVINGNE & ST VINCENT (ANNIE CLARK)



YOU don't mind women being lesbians so much when they look like Cara Delevingne, 25, and 35-year-old musician St Vincent.

The pair haven't yet released pics of them "at it" so we don't know what apparatus they use.

JERRY HALL & MICK JAGGER

JERRY seems to have a thing for blokes with faces like ballbags.

She was in a relationship with Sir Mick from 1977 and 1999.

And now she's married to 87-year-old Rupert Murdoch.

Makes a bit of sick come up, doesn't it?

RACHEL HUNTER & ROD STEWART

ROD the mod must have thought all his Christmases had come at once when model Rachel Hunter agreed to marry him in 1990.

They spent nine years together before splitting.

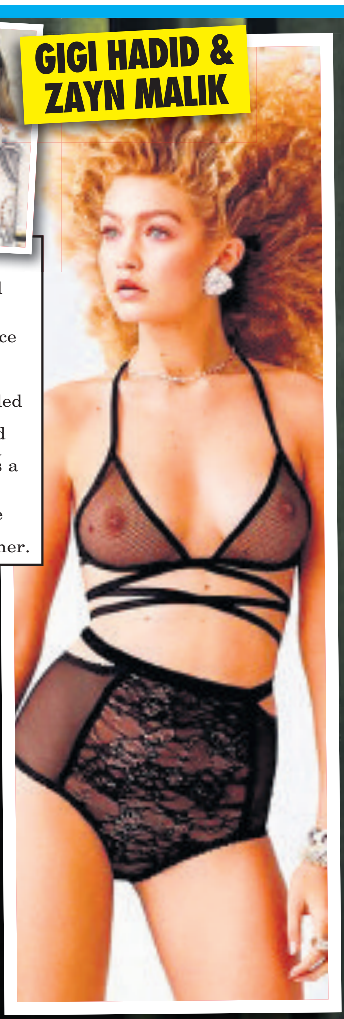
Randy Rod's now hanging out the back of another model, Penny Lancaster.

GIGI HADID & ZAYN MALIK

ONE Direction singer Zayn and Gigi have been in an on-off relationship since late 2015.

They shot a music video together, attended the Met Gala arm-in-arm, and even posed for a Vogue spread as a couple.

In September 2020, the couple welcomed their first child together.



BELLA HADID & ABEL TESFAYE

LIKE her sister Gigi, 21-year-old Bella also loves her pop stars.

She's been dating Abel, who goes by the odd stage name of The Weeknd.

He apparently used to partner Selena Gomez, who used to spread 'em for Justin Bieber.

VANESSA PARADIS & LENNY KRAVITZ

FELLAS around the world would have loved to have climbed on pert French pop babe-turned-perfume model Vanessa, but it was Lenny who got the first prize, after producing her album in 1992.

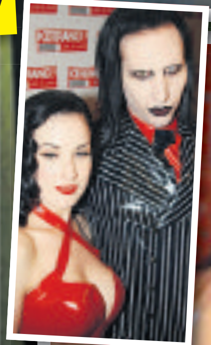
KATE MOSS & PETE DOHERTY

EVERYONE reckons that supermodel Kate Moss looks like a right dirty sort. You know, dirty in "that" way.

But junkie Pete Doherty?

Well, he looks like a grubby little unwashed arsehole.

Millions of men vowed when the pair hooked up: "Even if that Moss came begging, I wouldn't touch it – not after Doherty's been up there!"



DITA VON TEESE & MARILYN MANSON

ODDBALL Manson and burlesque dancer, model, and costume designer Dita became a couple in 2001.

They wed in 2004 in a private ceremony officiated by Chilean film director Alejandro Jodorowsky.

But she filed for divorce just two years later.

THE TOWPAT STALK

INNOCENT: Michelle took a short cut to catch a bus… but it cost her her life

BRIT SICK KILL

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

MICHELLE Calvy's family knew her as 'Little Miss Perfect'.

She was always smiling, always happy, and always willing to help out.

She was 16 years old but looked and acted younger.

On a cold spring evening in April 1987 she kissed her auntie goodbye and left to catch a bus home.

But Michelle never arrived – she became the prey of a killer.

Not wanting to miss the bus, she had hurried down a canal towpath which would save her the vital minutes she needed.

It would also cost her her life.

Anthony Entwistle spotted her heading down the path. He had spotted a victim. His vile lust would be sated.

He stalked Michelle.

Like an assassin following his target he had her in his sights, hiding in the bushes as he followed her.

When he was sure they were alone, he struck.

He was a fully grown man, she was just five feet tall – all skin and bone.

She didn't stand a chance.

Entwistle picked her up and carried her to his car.

He threw her in and drove to a local lovers' lane before raping her.

She had been a virgin.

Afterwards, as she begged to go home, he decided to kill her.

He twisted her T-shirt around her face, tightening it until Michelle could no longer breathe.

As life slowly escaped her body, evil Entwistle stayed calm. He dumped her naked body, not even bothering to hide the evidence of his crime.

The next day a local policeman found her.

A huge murder investigation was launched and police warned the women of Blackburn, Lancs, to be careful.

They were worried the killer would strike again.

Soon their enquiries led to Entwistle, and four days after Michelle's murder he was arrested.

He told police he had been in Blackpool on the night of the murder, but quickly witnesses proved his story otherwise and under interview he admitted killing Michelle.

The police had got their man, but the horror for Michelle's family was far from over.

Entwistle was ready to inflict even more pain on them.

He would try to destroy Michelle's reputation in a bid to keep himself from life in jail.

He told her family, as they watched in court, that their innocent girl had willingly had sex with him and that he had only accidentally taken her life.

He told his trial at Preston Crown Court: "Michelle was in a secluded area. I felt she was in danger of being harmed by someone or herself."

He claimed that when he approached the teen she told him to leave her alone but he added: "I could not get her out of my mind, so I went back."

This time, according to his sick fantasy, Michelle willingly went with him to his car.

He told the court she "needed loving" and had agreed to drive to a "quiet place".

Once there, he said they climbed into the back of his car, took off their clothes and had consensual sex.

When asked by the prosecution how this supposed moment of passion led to Michelle's death, Entwistle said it had been a tragic accident.

As she dressed he told her he was taking her home, which made her hysterical.

"She started crying and screaming, trying to get out of the car.

"I was trying to do two things at once – start the

SEARCH: Cops comb area for vital clues after Michelle's death

AFTER seven years caged for a string of sexual assaults Anthony Entwistle was deemed safe to be released back into society.

A parole board looked him in the eyes and judged he was no longer a threat to anyone.

It was a tragic mistake that could so easily have been prevented – and one which led to the death of an innocent little girl.

Evil Entwistle was free for just 18 days before he killed...

car and hold her back.”

Entwistle then told the court that he was worried about people hearing her shouts, so he tried to keep her quiet.

“I remember putting my hand over her mouth and then around her throat.

“I had the T-shirt and put it around her neck. She was unconscious and I realised that something was seriously wrong with her – she just went still.

“I did not mean to harm the girl, it was a complete accident.”

But the killer’s lie was immediately exposed as his disturbing criminal past was revealed to the court.

In October 1973 he attacked a woman on a canal towpath. As he raped her he tightened a stocking around her neck.

Two months later he raped a 15-year-old girl, choking her with a cravat.

He was jailed for 10 years but weeks after his release in March 1980 he attacked again.

A woman was dragged from the street, over barbed wire fencing and indecently assaulted by Entwistle – this time he tightened a rope around her neck.

In May that year he jumped a girl from behind and put a rope around her neck.

Luckily, her cries alerted a passerby and she was saved.

Nine days later, a taxi driver spotted him with his trousers round his ankles looming over a girl, again with a rope around her neck.

Entwistle managed to make good his escape.

Two more women were attacked but saved by passersby before Entwistle decided to choose a target closer to home – the babysitter of his two young children, who he raped as his kids slept in the room next door. Another was assaulted, again with a ligature around her neck.

After hearing his litany of horrific crimes the jury took just a few minutes to convict Entwistle and he was sentenced to 25 years by Judge Mr Justice Rose.

The judge told him: “This murder is the most horrifying event in an appalling catalogue of attacks on young women which you carried out during the brief time you were at liberty.

“You are likely to be a menace to young women for many years.”

The Home Secretary at the time, Douglas Hurd, later ordered that Entwistle end his days in prison.

HEAD-CHOP GRANNY KILLER: I'M NOT MAD

TRIAL: McBride denies murder ever happened

A MANIAC who killed and decapitated his own GRAN – then dumped her head on the back lawn – has withdrawn an insanity plea.

By SUZIE SHELDON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Kenny McBride, 46, will now face a jury on one count each of murder and mutilation of a dead body.

McBride, of Temperance, Michigan, said when he appeared before Monroe County Jail via Zoom: “I never claimed I wanted an insanity defence. I want an acquittal. I’ve wanted that since day one.”

McBride is charged in the slaying of his grandmother Cecelia Gibson, 79, who was found beaten and decapitated in the home she shared with McBride and his father.

Trauma

McBride was arrested and charged after investigators were called to a “medical emergency” at their Bedford Township home last February.

His gran’s headless body was found in the living room. Her head was found in the backyard, police said.

An autopsy showed Mrs Gibson died of blunt force trauma to her head, officials said.

McBride was sent to the state’s Centre for Forensic Psychiatry for a mental competency evaluation, which later determined he was fit to stand trial.

In November, the centre sent a letter to the court stating it was unable to evaluate McBride for criminal responsibility – which is required if pursuing an insanity defence – as he would not participate in interviews with doctors.

At his January 8 hearing via Zoom, McBride maintained his innocence, stating the murder didn’t happen.

He is set for a pretrial hearing on April 9, followed by jury trial on April 19, COVID-19 restrictions permitting.

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

STUNNING Mica Martinez wants you to know she's a high maintenance shagger – but she's ALWAYS worth the extra hard work!

The self-confessed nympho, 24, said she won't accept anything less than "10 out of 10" when it comes to sexual performance.

Mica, from Shoreditch, east London, revealed there's nothing worse in the bedroom than a bloke with bad skills.

The busty babe stripped in this exclusive photo shoot for Midweek Sport readers to show off her amazing 34D boobs and talk about her sexual requirements.

Waste

She said: "There have been a few times when I pulled a guy and he was terrible in bed.

"What a waste of time!

"In my opinion, sex with a boyfriend is always better than a one-night stand. It's only after getting to know someone that things get really good.

"If you're with someone for a while, you can start to work out what the other person really likes – and you don't have to put up with awkward sex!"

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

You Twits can't stop free speech

SEEING Donald Trump get "cancelled" by the social media giants has given every so-called liberal the biggest boner of their lives.

It came after The Donald made the bizarre decision last week to spur on some of his maddest followers into storming Capitol Hill – the US equivalent of the Houses of Parliament.

He was then rightly condemned for what incoming President "Elect" Joe Biden described as inciting an insurrection.

But as everyone at the Guardian and its three readers strip off their ethically sourced hemp dungarees and indulge in non-binary socially distanced Liberal Democrat non-sex, allow me to issue a word of caution.

If they can do this to the President of the United States, they can do this to anyone.

And that ain't good, folks.

Yes, that decision by Twitter, Facebook and Instagram to scrap the US President's accounts has been hailed as great by everyone who doesn't like the guy.

But equally – remember that word? – it is beyond demonic to those who do.

And no matter whether you think Trump should ever have been allowed anywhere near 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue in the first place, they have a point.

First, apart from a few criminal exceptions, pretty much anyone born in the USA has the chance to become the nation's Commander in Chief. Them's the rules.

And second, it's down to those who lost to accept it, move on, and plot a way to win next time.

You know – the way some of our more rabid Remainers have absolutely NOT done.

It's called "loser's consent" – the mature, adult acceptance of something we might not like very much but nevertheless take it on the chin.

Trump has failed very much on that one. But in a strange way, so has Twitter and the rest of them.

Because, love him or hate him, Trump still got almost 80 MILLION American adult citizens to vote for him back in November.

Which means those social media companies have just told that same amount of tax-paying, goods-buying, money-spending Trump voters to essentially fk right off.

It should also never be forgotten by the dwindling band of Guardianistas and Trump haters that it wasn't actually Trump who put himself in the White House.

It was the voters.

Just like Boris Johnson or Dominic Cummings or Nigel Farage, or even the bloody Russians, didn't win the Brexit referendum.

It was the voters.

Same, too, a year ago, when British heads voted for Boris because the only alternative was a strange man with wonky teeth and a penchant for off-duty tracksuits and marrows.

And therein lies the problem for the social media bosses.

They've forgotten who's in charge and, drenched in hubris, mistakenly decided it must be them.

What these self-appointed arbiters of opinion fail to realise is that by cancelling those they don't like, they actually feed the beast.

Just consider the evidence.

Trump got into power precisely because he stuck two fingers up at the system.

Farage got it right because he touched a lot of nerves.

Boris romped home simply by not being Corbyn.

But none of them got anywhere without people actually trotting out to polling booths and VOTING for them.

And there is absolutely NOTHING that Twitter can ever – ever – do about that.

Cop nicked for kidnap and murder

A POLICEMAN is accused of kidnapping and murdering a man while he was on duty.

Patric Ferguson held Robert Howard at gunpoint and put him in the back of his patrol car before fatally shooting him, it's alleged.

Ferguson, an officer since October 2018, and Howard previously knew each other, police said.

Armed with his personal pistol, he confronted Howard, 30, in front of the victim's home, forced him into the back of his car, drove to another area then put a bullet in his head.

Joshua Rogers, a friend of Ferguson's, helped him move Howard's body.

Ferguson, 29, was arrested on Sunday and immediately relieved of duty with the police force in Memphis, Tennessee.

He was charged with kidnapping and murder, while Rogers, 28, was arrested and charged with aiding and abetting.

School's terror over student's radioactivities

A SCHOOL was evacuated after a pupil brought in a science project that his teachers feared was radioactive.

The unnamed student said he brought a small, "quarter-sized" piece of an antique plate, known as Fiestaware or uranium glass, to a science class.

It was part of an exercise to test a Geiger counter – a gadget used to detect radiation.

He said his teacher thanked him but "someone" determined it constituted a potential biohazard and briefly evacuated the school.

The teenager at the school in New Jersey said: "It's a dramatic over-exaggeration. I gave them a sample that gave off less radiation than most things you can find in an antique store."

Kim Cattrall banned from show's new comeback...

BOOB ROW HITS SEX AND THE CITY

By JAYNE FERGUSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

BLONDE babe Kim Cattrall was ditched from the new series of Sex and the City because the other actresses are jealous of her boobs, insiders say.

The dreary drama about a group of women who spend endless hours banging on about their problems is set to return to HBO for the first time in 17 years.

The new series will see Kristin Davis, Sarah Jessica Parker and Cynthia Nixon back in New York as 30-somethings.

Devastated

But controversially Kim, who played the popular character Samantha in the show, has been dumped from the revival.

And insiders claim she has been ditched in a row over who has the best boobs.

A Hollywood source said: "The news that the show is back has gone down a storm with miserable women in their 40s who used it as some kind of guide to life.

"But they will be devastated that Samantha won't be back.

"She was everyone's favourite character. But as far as I understand it, there was a row when Kim got her boobs out on the show and Sarah Jessica Parker didn't.

"There was a big row about who was flashing the flesh and why some people were shirking in that respect.

"They haven't been friends since and that is why Kim has been banned from the reboot."

The US network did not say why Kim wasn't cast in the revival, titled And Just Like That – a nod to one of the show's original catchphrases.

However, Kim has had a strained relationship with the show in recent years amid feud rumours, in particular with former co-star SJP.

TROUBLE BREWING!

A MUM has been jailed for smashing a cup over the head of a police officer arresting her boyfriend.

Andria Stuart, 37, was put behind bars for 10 months for the attack on the officer.

Police were called when Shaun Bilton, 32, was ordered to leave the family home by his mother.

But Bilton then jumped on Sgt Andrew Phillips – and two other officers wrestled him to the floor.

In court, prosecutor Laura Shepherd said: "Ms Stuart hit Sgt Phillips over the head with a cup which smashed and caused injury to his head.

"He received a two-inch laceration to the head which required stitches."

Both Stuart and Bilton, of Caerphilly, South Wales, pleaded guilty to wounding and assaulting an emergency worker. Bilton also admitted resisting arrest and criminal damage.

Mark Davies, representing Stuart, said she was initially trying to placate the situation and regretted assaulting Sgt. Phillips with the cup.

Judge DJ Hale said: "The police were just doing their job largely in a good-natured way and then you chose to hit one of them over the head with a cup causing him injury, stitches, and bleeding."

Stuart was jailed for 10 months and Bilton for 32 weeks at Cardiff Crown Court.

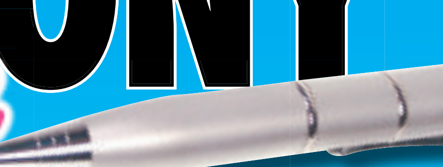
THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page



Dear Bexie,

I'M having an affair with our babysitter and my thick wife doesn't suspect a thing.

I'm 27, the missus is 29 and the babysitter is 19, with pert tits and a tight pussy.

She's quite experienced for a teen and I have been shagging her for six months. She lets me do anything I want with her, which is more than the ball and chain does.

The wife believes everything I tell her – that's how I can enjoy my cake and eat it!

We go out twice a week and while she's getting ready me and the babysitter have a quickie.

We make love all over the house, even in our bed while the wife is relaxing in the bath.

Do you think she knows and is just turning a blind eye?

BG, Kidderminster

Bexie says…

YOU'RE playing with fire my friend. Be warned!

Dear Bexie,

I'M a barmaid and I love sex. I'm 21 with long, dark hair and most blokes can't take their eyes off my 34Ds.

I am used to being chatted up but had never taken it any further until one of the regulars offered me £20 to suck his cock.

I needed the money, so I gave him a blowjob on my way home. I must have impressed him, as over the next few weeks several of his mates paid me to give them a gobble.

I was happy with the extra money and was delighted when the landlord offered me £500 to be shagged by him and a couple of customers.

On the night of the gang-bang the landlord led me to the pool table and soon I was being banged by three blokes.

But they told everybody in town and now I can't go anywhere without being called a slag.

What should I do?

LG, Leeds

Bexie says…

MOVE to a new area and find another job.

Girlfriend's filthy pal has made me her sex slave

Dear Bexie,

MY bird's mate is a right dirty cow and she has wanted to shag me for ages.

I managed to resist her advances until just a couple of weeks ago.

My girlfriend was away at a conference for the weekend and her mate came round to my flat clutching a couple of bottles of wine and a pizza.

She said she was just checking up on me to make sure I wasn't seeing any other women behind my bird's back!

We soon polished off the wine and we were both a bit tipsy and I could see what was coming next.

She stood up and stripped off to her black G-string before getting out my throbbing cock and sucking me off until I spunked on her face.

She then pleasured herself with a wine bottle until I was rock-hard again. I led her to my bedroom and gave her a good shafting.

But when I woke up the next day, I felt horribly guilty.

I told her that we couldn't have sex again, but she said she would tell my girlfriend if I didn't carry on seeing her.

She explained that she didn't like my girlfriend anyway and if their friendship ended she wouldn't be that bothered.

So I now have to bang her twice a week.

The last time we did it she tied me up and spanked me with a cane.

I'm virtually her sex slave now. What do you think I should do?

JD, Essex

Bexie says…

TELL your girlfriend the truth and beg for forgiveness.

I'm worn out playing kinky sex games he sees on TV

Dear Bexie,

MY boyfriend is wearing me down with his constant – and bizarre – sexual requests.

We've been going out together for two years and recently set up home in a roomy two-bed flat.

The problem is that what he watches on the telly he tends to put into practice in real life.

Take this for example.

There was this game show which you got the chance to open a box containing details of a super prize.

We watched it together and I must admit I quite enjoyed it.

He's a bit of a pub quiz fan and when it finished he got me to ask him a few questions – as a test.

Hammering

Amazingly, he got them all right and demanded his big prize.

I was just going along with the fun, wondering what the punchline would be, when he pulled me into the bedroom, which I didn't resist.

He quickly stripped me and the next thing I knew, I was naked on the bed and he was standing above me demanding: "Open the box!"

I soon realised what he meant as he parted my legs and entered me.

Then he spent the next half-an-hour hammering into me from all angles.

I must have orgasmed five or more times and was covered in his man muck.

We had a really great session, but the next programme he took a fancy to watching on the telly was a play about two lesbians.

As soon as it finished he started on to me, asking if I could please find another woman to make love to – so he could watch!

I was a bit shocked and told him so and although he apologised and calmed me down, it didn't end there.

He found a satellite station showing old Benny Hill re-runs and watched three or four of them, back to back.

So he asked me to dress up as a nurse and run around the house chasing him.

This was great fun and we ended up having a frenzied fk for about an hour.

Then he started on at me again about lesbo sex.

I'm trying to put him off the idea but I am also quite worried about what he'll come up with next if I don't agree to bringing another girl back to the house for some adult fun.

How can I stop him wanting to recreate everything he sees on the telly?

MH, Lancs

Bexie says...

TAKE the remote control off him.

Dear Bexie,

I MOVED to a new town last month and made friends with a guy in the local pub.

He's in his early 50s and works abroad a lot and he confided in me that he worries his wife shags around when he's away.

So he employed me as a part-time gardener while he was next away on a trip, asking me to keep an eye on her.

When I got there for my first day I wasn't expecting his wife to be so fit.

She's in her early forties and it wasn't long before she was whispering in my ear that she wanted a fk.

She told me she'd always wanted a toyboy – I'm 23 – and was soon sucking my throbbing cock.

After swallowing my mess, she revealed her 34D tits and firm arse.

I gave her a good licking out before I bent her over the sofa, taking her doggy-style until she had a screaming orgasm.

I've shagged her several times since, but she now wants to leave her husband, who's due back in a couple of weeks, and move in with me!

What should I do?

TV, Coventry

Bexie says...

STAY calm. She will probably change her mind when her husband returns.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

Manchester M32 0QJ

Dear Bexie,

I AM a 24-year-old geezer and have only had sex with three women.

I am currently single. This is my fault as I really want to hook up with birds, but I am too scared as I have a bendy penis!

The last time I pulled a nice blonde bird and got her back to my place, it all went badly wrong.

Everything was going great to begin with as I stripped her off and sucked her big nipples before switching down below to give her fanny a good licking.

She was gagging for it, but as soon as I pulled out my bent cock she had a laughing fit and told me there was no way she was taking that inside her.

Now I worry that all women will take one look at it and tell me to fk off. What should I do?

PK, Sussex

Bexie says...

I THINK you've nothing to worry about. Just get out there and get pulling!

#MY SEX FANTASY

'She goes down on me and I orgasm!'

...WITH NIKITA VALENTINE, 33 34DD-24-34 FROM GREAT YARMOUTH

I HAVE a sexual fantasy about going to a strip club and being allowed to get touchy-feely with a hot stripper!

I've actually never been to one and I'm always mesmerised whenever they're on the telly.

Gorgeous girls wearing next to nothing and having the confidence to dance seductively and gyrate in public like that is really hot.

In my fantasy, I go there for a laugh with a group of friends and find myself really turned on by a babe who has that sweet but filthy look going on.

Private

She's curvy with big boobs, heavily tattooed and has flame red hair and lovely baby blue eyes.

She dances for me for a while and then takes me to a back room for a private dance.

She gets turned on by me too and we end up kissing and caressing each other.

She encourages me to touch her – to lick and suck her huge boobs and put my hand inside her knickers and rub her clit.

Then she goes down on me and I have the best orgasm ever!'

#HOT'N'HORNY

WELSH wonder Jaye Rose admits she's absolutely FILTHY in bed.

And she loves nothing more than lubing up her massive 32E boobs to give lucky fellas an amazing tit-wank.

Jaye, 28, from Cardiff, said: "Not many blokes have been with a woman with huge boobies like mine.

"So they've never really felt the sensation of having the entire length of their cock enveloped by a huge pair of fleshy boobs.

"All it takes is a bit of lube or baby oil and they're in heaven.

"You should see their faces – it's like they're in a different world!

"Every time I've done it, the bloke involved has told me it was the best sensation ever.

"And I love it, too – not only do I get off on them feeling good but it feels nice for me.

"I usually make sure to catch their spunk in my mouth at the end of it.

"Well, it's only polite after all!"

PRIVATE SHOPS UK

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for.

This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

AMBER JAYNE

IT technician Steven Goodwin much prefers blondes over brunettes and gorgeous Amber Jayne is his number one choice.

The 37-year-old computer whizz, from Northampton, begged for a topless snap of 28-year-old Amber, from Wolverhampton.

He said: "My fave is Amber in black stockings and a G-string, but completely topless.

"Her 34E boobs really are a great sight."

CASSIDY BANKS

SHOP worker Mal Hutchinson only has eyes for Cassidy Banks and wrote in requesting a sexy snap of the glamour girl.

Mal, 43, from Lancaster, says he fancies the pants off 25-year-old Leeds stunna Cassidy and ogles her 38DD boobs any time he can.

He said: "Please can I have a photo of Cassidy printed in the Sport please? I think she's a real catch and I want a new photo of her teets.

"Work can be a pain but knowing I've got tons of photos of Cassidy at home gets me through the day!"

AIMEE LUIS

RETIRED Glenn Hardacre says he hasn't had sex for years – but stunning beauty Aimee Luis never fails to cause a stir in his pants.

Glenn, 72, from Shrewsbury, reckons 27-year-old babe Aimee, from Broxbourne, Herts, is the perfect woman and he can't stop ogling her 32DD boobs.

He said: "I've been retired ten years now, that's when I first started reading the Sport.

"And I tell you what, they've been the best ten years I've had!

"There's tons of fitties in the pages of the Sport but Aimee is my favourite.

"She always gets me going, even when I didn't think I had anything left in me!"

#CAM GIRL OF THE WEEK

By GILLIAN TAYLOR news@sundaysport.co.uk

KINKY glamour girl Preeti Young didn't hold back when she told us all about her DEEP THROAT skills.

The 27-year-old beauty – whose twin sister Priya is also a model – said treating her fella to a blowjob is her favourite thing to do between the sheets.

Preeti, from Lambeth, south London, stripped off to reveal her eye-watering 32FFs for this saucy photo shoot.

And she told the Midweek Sport she finds it a huge turn-on to see her man enjoying himself.

She said: "I love giving blowjobs and I'm really good at them, too.

"I can do deep throat ones without even trying.

"I really enjoy that, because it's so good for the guy."

TEEN ACE: Devine

It's all about Alfie for pal Tanganga

SPURS have a star of the future in Alfie Devine says team-mate Japhet Tanganga.

The 16-year-old caught the eye when coming off the bench in Tottenham's FA Cup tie against little Marine. He quickly smashed a goal into the bottom corner as he made of the most of his first-team opportunity.

Devine was with Liverpool as a kid but failed to make the grade at Anfield and was snapped up by Wigan Athletic. They sold him to the Londoners for £500,000 last summer.

Tanganga thinks Devine is ready for more action with the first-team and is a prospect for the future.

IMPRESSED: Tanganga

He said: "Every time he's come up to our training he's looked a real spark.

"He's doing well. When he was coming on, I just told him, 'Keep it simple, do what you've been doing in training – there's a reason why you've been training up'.

"You saw glimpses of his ability in a really professional performance.

Achievement

"I'm really happy for him to get his first professional goal. He's a really good player and there's more to come as well.

"It's a great achievement and it was a great goal.

"Hopefully from here it's a confidence boost, knowing that the manager can put him in for these games.

"He's shown he can hustle, he's shown what he can do, so hopefully from here he can kick on and get more appearances for the club."

HAPPY: Mourinho

Boss Jose Mourinho agrees with Tanganga's assessment of the teen sensation.

He said: "He's a kid with good potential.

"He's basically a midfield player but with an instinct to appear in finishing zones and to score goals.

"We like him and of course for him it was a special day."

One thing Mourinho won't be so pleased at is having to play Fulham tonight with just a couple of days' notice.

Tottenham were meant to be taking on Aston Villa but that was postponed because of the club's covid outbreak.

Now Spurs will welcome Fulham to White Hart Lane after that match was postponed when the Cottagers went down with the virus. Fulham will then face Chelsea on Saturday.

ON HIS WAY: Wijnaldum looks all set to leave the champions

REDS SOUR IF WIJN LEAVES

Keep Dutchman at Anfield begs Heskey

By PAUL THOMAS

LIVERPOOL legend Emile Heskey thinks the Reds should pull out all the stops to keep Georginio Wijnaldum.

The Dutch master is out of contract at Anfield this summer so is free for talks with other clubs about a move.

So far, it looks like he will be joining fellow Dutchman Ronald Koeman at Barcelona — assuming he's still there this summer.

Injured

Wijnaldum is still one of the first names on Jurgen Klopp's teamsheet but there is no sign of a contract offer from the Premier League champions.

He has turned out 25 times for the Reds this season and is one of the few Anfield stars who isn't regularly injured.

Heskey — who played 223 times for Liverpool — thinks letting him go would be a major mistake.

He said: "I would love him to stay. For Liverpool, it's about trying to get the best deal for them. It's a negotiation. If you are that far apart then it won't happen. If you are close, then something could possibly happen.

"You're going to play for a manager that you already know. You know what they are capable of doing and they will have sold you a project.

"I'm pretty sure he will have spoken to that manager and they will have sold a project they are building.

"They will have a looked at a five or 10-year project and he will have said 'yes, I can be a part of this' or 'no, I don't want to be part of it because it doesn't look solid enough'.

"When they come calling it's hard to turn them down.

"They are the biggest clubs in the world, with the biggest fan bases.

"It will be interesting to see if he takes that up."

It's not clear if Liverpool have made Wijnaldum an offer yet.

And former England striker Darren Bent thinks the club should let him go rather than overpay.

He thinks Wijnaldum is in the second rank of Kop idols and shouldn't be on the same sort of money as Mo Salah and Sadio Mane.

Bent said: "He's been very, very good, but no, I'm not putting him on the same wages as Salah, Mane, even Roberto Firmino, for that matter.

"The likes of van Dijk, Alisson, Robertson, Trent no – don't get me wrong, he's been good, he's been very good, especially when they won the Champions League, his role in the team, but to say he wants to be up there with the big earners, no.

Catapult

He's been part of a very successful team and deserves to be in the same building as those guys because he has played well, there have been times, like in the Champions League semi-final, where I thought he was brilliant.

"But to kind of catapult yourself to where van Dijk is, Alisson, these guys, them two, for instance, changed lives at Liverpool when they came in."

GOAL THREAT: Sterling

TOUGH MIDWEEK FOR VISITORS

BRIGHTON are set for a tough night against Man City at the Etihad tonight.

The Seagulls are not playing bad football but they have been really struggling for results.

They have managed just one success in their past 16 games and needed penalties to see off Newport County in the FA Cup on Sunday.

That's hardly the best way to prepare for a visit to Pep's lads.

City have a cracking record against the Albion with seven wins on the spin.

They have shrugged off their patchy start to the season and have now strung six wins together. Guardiola is known for his fluid attacking but that run of success has been built on a strong defence.

City have conceded just 13 times in their 15 league games this season.

Brighton are hard to read because they have scored 21 times themselves which is much more than any of the other relegation rivals.

Even their conceded tally of 28 isn't that bad and less than Leeds who sit comfortably in mid-table.

The problem is they just don't win with just two Premier League victories this season.

City are 1/5 to take the three points with Brighton 18/1 to grab an unlikely win and the draw at 15/2.

The home side to win and keep a clean sheet makes a bit more appeal at 4/5 but that's hardly a massive moneyspinner.

Instead we'll have a couple of dabbles in the correct score markets.

You have to fancy City to keep a clean sheet and keep the Brighton goalie busy.

So spread your stake between 3-0 at 7/1 and 4-0 at 10/1 for a decent return.

Tonight's other game is the hastily arranged clash between Spurs and Fulham at White Hart Lane.

Tottenham have a cracking record against their fellow Londoners and have won eight of their last nine meetings.

It's hard to make a case for the Cottagers winning this but a draw is not out of the question.

Manager Scott Parker has made his team harder to beat in recent weeks with four draws on the trot in the Premier League.

Fulham have been hit by a covid outbreak but they can hopefully put out their strongest side.

Tottenham are playing a much more dour game under Jose Mourinho this season and this should be pretty tight.

Again the bookies aren't giving much away with Spurs 4/11 shots, the draw 4/1 and a Fulham win on offer at 15/2.

I can see this going to Tottenham either 1-0 or 2-0.

So you could do the home win and a clean sheet for Spurs which is a fair 5/4.

And it's 13/2 for 1-0 or 2-0 victories for the Special One's men which looks fair enough.

The Wednesday night double on Tottenham and Man City both winning without conceding a goal adds up to around 3/1 which isn't bad.

Looking at Thursday, 4/7 shots Arsenal will be desperate to keep up their decent run of form at home to Crystal Palace who are on offer at 6/1.

While the Gunners are looking up, the wheels have fallen off for the Eagles who have copped hefty defeats against Liverpool and Villa with only a win against Sheffield United in the plus column.

Arsenal to win both halves of this match looks a decent bet at 11/4 with Mikel Arteta's men seeming to have turned a corner with four wins since their spanking by Man City.

'CHEATING' SMITH ON VERGE OF IPL BOOT

CRICKET By ANDY MILLOM

AUSSIE cryer Steve Smith faces the boot from his lucrative Indian Premier League contract with the Rajasthan Royals.

The new tournament will hold its regular auction for players next month but are allowed to retain some of their star names.

Smith has captained the Royals for the past three campaigns but failed to shine last season. That already had his contract — thought to be worth more than a million quid — hanging in the balance.

And now he has been caught up in a new scandal as Australia face India in a Test series down under.

He was seen scuffing up the pitch and removing the batsmen's guard marks in the last game at Sydney.

He is already famous for his part in "sandpapergate" while the Aussie captain when he famously blubbed in the press conference as he was stripped of the job and banned for 12 months.

England legend Darren Gough thinks the Aussie is way out of order.

And he reckons captain Tim Paine isn't much better with his sledging.

He said: "You had Steve Smith who showed us all these tears and sorrow a few years ago when they got done for using sandpaper on the ball, he was the captain who was responsible for that because he was the leader of the team.

"Now during a break in play he's going round and dancing around, scuffing up the pitch and rubbing out the mark with his spikes of the batsman's marker.

"That was totally out of order. People say he's done nothing wrong, well he has.

"He's going onto the pitch and trying to make it worse for the spinners to bowl onto a length.

"Then he's rubbing out the markers for the batsmen where he puts his bat. It's plain cheating in my book.

"Australia are supposed to have got it all in order with this captain Paine.

"They've given him a knighthood basically for what he's done to this team and made them grow up.

"They just are dropping back into that zone.

"You have to keep an eye on this. Australia get your act together right now. It's embarrassing."

HUGO A GO GO!

Lloris fancies French return at PSG

By JOHN ANTHONY

HUGO Lloris is being lined up for a summer reunion with Mauricio Pochettino.

The French No1 has his heart set on a return to Paris St Germain to link up with his former gaffer.

Lloris is 34 and his Spurs contract runs out at the end of next season.

By that time it could be too late for his dream move and it looks more likely to happen this summer.

PSG are looking to make a proper push for the Champions League under Poch after getting to the final last season.

They currently have eccentric Costa Rican Keylor Navas as their No1. He isn't the worst stopper but Lloris would be a clear upgrade.

Reports in Europe say that Lloris has made it clear that he doesn't want a new contract at White Hart Lane.

He earns around £100,000 per week with the Londoners and PSG would be willing and able to double that wage packet.

Spurs chairman Daniel Levy is unlikely to let Lloris run down his contract before going on a free.

He knows he could bring in as much as £15m for the keeper this summer.

That would be just a drop in the ocean as manager Jose Mourinho would need a lot more to bring in a solid replacement with No2 Joe Hart unlikely to step up.
